Itinerary

Day 1: Start at 09:00 hrs

Rurrenabaque

The journey begins at 09:00 from Rurrenabaque in a comfortable air-conditioned vehicle. During the approximately 3-hour drive, you'll have the opportunity to observe birds, toucans, capybaras, and sloths in their natural habitat.

Santa Rosa

We will arrive at the main port in Santa Rosa for lunch. After lunch, we will take a boat trip along the river, where you can spot monkeys, turtles, caimans, capybaras, and a mysterious landscape characteristic of the Beni savannahs. This is an excellent opportunity for photography.

Refuge

Upon arrival at the refuge, you will be welcomed with a refreshing drink and will proceed to check into your accommodations..

Meals: Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Jabiru Refuge

Day 2 - Start at 07:30 am

Pampas – Yacuma River

The day starts early with a short boat trip to witness the sunrise on the Yacuma River. After breakfast, we will embark on a walk through small forests and lagoons, a great opportunity to explore the anaconda's habitat.

Refuge and Rest

After the walk, we will return to the refuge for lunch and a well-deserved rest.

River Navigation: "Swim with Dolphins"

In the afternoon, we will navigate the river to see the famous pink river dolphins or "buefos." You will even have the chance to swim with them before returning to the refuge.

Night Walk

After dinner, we will take a night boat trip on the Yacuma River to observe the glow of caiman eyes, nocturnal birds, and other wildlife.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Jabiru Refuge

Day 3 - Start at 07:30 am

River Navigation

We will start the day with a final river exploration in search of yellow monkeys (chichilos) and enjoy the morning breeze. During these last hours in the Pampas, we will also have the opportunity to spot other wildlife.

Refuge and Lunch

After the morning activity, we will return to the refuge for a delicious lunch. This will be a perfect time to relax and reflect on the adventures of the tour.

Return to Rurrenabaque

After lunch, we will prepare for the return journey to Rurrenabaque. The approximately 3-hour drive will take us back, offering one last chance to enjoy the stunning Beni savannah landscape. Upon arrival in Rurrenabaque, the tour will conclude.
